A woman with her hair tied back, wearing a black blazer over a pink top, is seated at a desk. She is looking down at a laptop computer, with her hands on the keyboard. The desk in front of her is covered with a green cloth and has several sheets of paper and a telephone on it.

A man with dark hair, wearing a grey checkered blazer over a white shirt and a dark tie, is seated at the same desk. He is holding a black telephone receiver to his ear with his right hand, appearing to be in the middle of a conversation. His left hand is resting on the desk near some papers.

A yellow box with some text and a logo is sitting on a desk in the background. The box appears to be a product or equipment box, possibly for a printer or scanner. It is partially obscured by some cables and other items on the desk.

A tall, cylindrical, silver-colored object, possibly a trash can or a specialized piece of office equipment, is located on the floor next to the desk. It has a dark opening at the top and a textured surface.
